

TEEN SUMMER READING

ASHEBORO

Register online beginning June 1 at www.randolphlibrary.org/summer/teens.htm or at the library. Track and report minutes read for a chance for weekly prize bags (full of books and more), and grand prizes including a Kindle Fire HD 6'.

Heroes Unmasked #1

Scott Hager, Asheboro Aikido

4 p.m. Thursday, June 11. Sensei Hager has been teaching Aikido for many years. Far more than a form a self-defense Aikido is a way of life that promotes oneness with nature and self-confidence.

Heroes Unmasked #4

Bob Langston, conservationist

4:30 p.m. Thursday, July 9. Bob, an interpretive specialist with the NC Zoo and highly-regarded conservationist, will hand out free Dogwood saplings and talk about the importance of conserving the green spaces in our world.

Heroes Unmasked #2

K9 Officer Adam Baird and Sal

4 p.m. Thursday, June 18. Sal's a hard working example of many of the heroes that work right here in our town to keep us safe. He can track and search for explosives and other illegal substances.

Heroes Unmasked #5

Asheboro Fire Department

2 p.m. Thursday, July 23. Asheboro firefighters will present demonstrations of their fire-dowsing capabilities, and will talk about habits that promote fire safety. They will have a fire engine on hand!

Heroes Unmasked #3

Marvel Comics Illustrator John Czop

2 p.m. Thursday, June 25. Meet John, learn how he draws super heroes, and gear up for a special five-part comic drawing class in the fall.

7th Annual LEGO Mania
2 p.m. Friday, July 31
Ages 10-18 • Call 318-6803 to sign up

RANDLEMAN

3:30 p.m. Wednesdays

Preregistration required — call 498-3141

- June 17: Teen Tech Time with Dave Bare
- June 24: Ashley King and "The Science Behind Super Heroes"
- July 1: Hands-On Science with Ms. Amy
- July 8: Hands-On Science with Ms. Amy
- July 15: Hands-On Science with Ms. Amy
- July 22: Hands-On Science with Ms. Amy